ONWARD TRANSFERS

The College will implement where needed data transfer agreements when transferring any personal data outside of the UK. The College is also working closely with our Data Protection Officer to ensure that any transfers of UK personal data post Brexit is reviewed and actioned accordingly.

The information that we collect (including any Personal Data) may be transferred to, and stored at, various destinations, which may include destinations outside the UK/European Economic Area (EEA). It may be processed at various locations outside the UK/EEA by one of our IT service providers including hosting, connectivity or telecommunications.

Examples of this would be services which utilise global business solutions e.g, Google GSuite, Amazon Cloud Services, Microsoft Azure which for the purposes of backup, disaster recovery, load balancing means that data systems using these platforms can pass through or be stored outside the UK/EEA. However, these providers have established robust measures and procedures to ensure data integrity and compliance with the regulations.

How Long We Keep Your Information For

WEBSITE VISITORS

We use analytics technologies provided by Google Analytics and other third parties. This involves cookies being set via our Website, which then collect information about your usage of our Website.

ENQUIRIES AND EVENT BOOKINGS

For Course Enquiries or Event Bookings we will store your information for no more than two years after your initial enquiry/booking. Should you wish to remain in contact with us for the purposes of receiving further marketing or event information beyond this time you will be asked to provide additional consents to do so.

COURSE APPLICATIONS

We will store your personal data for no more than two years after your initial application, unless you become a learner of Access Creative College. Personal data linked to your studies, funding, assessment and achievement will be retained in line with our statutory and contractual requirements as outlined in our data retention schedule.

Should you wish to remain in contact with us for the purposes of receiving further marketing or event information beyond this time, then you will be asked to provide additional consents to do so.

EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

For applications for employment we will store your Personal Data for a period of 6 months if you are not successful after which this will be deleted. The details for successful applicants will be transferred to your employment records with the business and retained in line with our data retention policies and statutory obligations, the details of which can be found here: Privacy Notice - Workforce Data.

Your Rights Over Your Information

1. The Right to be Informed:

You have the right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data. We ensure we do this with our internal data protection policies and through our external website policy. These are regularly reviewed and updated to ensure these are accurate and reflect our data processing activities.

2. Right to Access:

You have the right to access the personal information that we hold about you in many circumstances, by making a request. This is sometimes termed 'Subject Access Request'. If we agree that we are obliged to provide personal information to you (or someone else on your behalf), we will provide it to you or them free of charge and aim to do so within 30 days from when your identity has been confirmed.

We would ask for proof of identity and sufficient information about your interactions with us that we can locate your personal information.

If you would like to exercise this right, please contact us as set out below.

3. Right to Rectification:

If any of the personal information we hold about you is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date, you may ask us to correct it.

If you would like to exercise this right, please contact us as set out below.

4. Right to Stop or Limit Our Processing of Your Data:

You have the right to object to us processing your personal information for particular purposes, to have your information deleted if we are keeping it too long or have its processing restricted in certain circumstances.

If you would like to exercise this right, please contact us as set out below.

5. Right to Erasure:

You have the right to have personal data erased. This is also known as the 'right to be forgotten'. The right is not absolute and only applies in certain circumstances.

If you would like to exercise this right, please contact us as set out below.

6. Right to Portability:

The right to portability gives you the right to receive personal data you have provided to a controller in a structured, commonly used and machine readable format. It also gives them you the right to request that a controller transmits this data directly to another controller.

If you would like to exercise this right, please contact us as set out below.

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) regulates data protection and privacy matters in the UK. They make a lot of information accessible to consumers on their website and they ensure that the registered details of all data controllers (including us) are available publicly. You can access their website here <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public>.

You can make a complaint to the ICO at any time about the way we use your information. However, we hope that you would consider raising any issue or complaint you have with us first. Your satisfaction is extremely important to us, and we will always do our very best to solve any problems you may have. You can contact us via our details below.

Securing Your Information

The security of your information is important to us. We have implemented suitable physical, electronic, and procedural measures to safeguard your information. These include:

Access control: Access to all information will be controlled and will be driven by business requirements. Access will be granted or arrangements made for users according to their role and the classification of information, only to a level that will allow them to carry out their duties. A formal user registration will be maintained for access to all information systems and services.

Encryption of data: The College will use encryption where appropriate to protect the confidentiality, authenticity and integrity of personal data, information and systems.

Physical and environmental security: The College will house information and data in secure environments, with a range of information technology and physical security protections in place.

Communications security: The College will maintain network security controls to ensure the protection of information within its networks, and provide the tools and guidance to ensure the secure transfer of information both within its networks and with external entities.

We will never ask you for your passwords

We have an Information Security Policy which is regularly reviewed and has been implemented across the College.

However, please keep in mind that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time (for example, if the law changes). We recommend that you check this policy regularly to stay up to date.
