

Coronavirus Update

Information for Access Creative College applicants

Thursday 19th March 2020

Following the announcement of school closures made by the Prime Minister on Wednesday evening, Access Creative College has decided to heed this advice and shut the campuses to students at 5pm today until further notice. The Central Services teams are still in full operation and are working remotely.

Admissions are still contactable in the usual ways, by the website chat, our Admissions phone number and by email, all listed below.

We're so sorry if you were booked onto the Open Day in March or if you were looking forward to one of our many events across the country over Easter. These have been postponed until further notice. At the moment, we are hoping to run the Taster Day in May, but we will give further updates on this as the situation evolves.

If you have had your interview for September 2020, and have been made a conditional or unconditional offer, that still stands and we're still looking forward to welcoming you in September. We will await further guidance from the Government about the situation with exams.

If you haven't yet had your interview, these will now be arranged for a telephone conversation or Google Hangout, with auditions taking place later in the year for certain courses. These can be booked in the usual way, via your website application login or calling the Admissions Team.

Please check out our social channels as we'll be giving you some fantastic opportunities to keep our creative community talking during this difficult time. Our magazine, ACCESS, will also still be released in April, so watch out for that as well.

Applications are still open and we're here to give you advice and guidance on your next steps into creative education. If you have any questions at all, please don't hesitate to contact us.
